A "HOT MONTH,"

Says Hicks, in His Forecast For July.

Some Excessively Warm Weather
Scheduled, But Waves Will be Followed by Cool Days.

There will be a noticeable tendency to cloudiness during the first ten days of the month. Very warm, muggy weather will prevail, a portion of the time, but a very probable change to cooler will pass over the country between the 4th and 7th. The second storm period covers the 7th to the 11th. Thunder storms, with wind and rain, will strike many localities during the progress of these storm conditions. Another change to cooler will follow for two or three days. On the 15th look for change to much warmer, with more rain, wind and thunder. There will be much blustering but the rain fall will not be very heavy. Slight change to cooler will naturally follow these reactionary excitements. A regular storm period is central on the 20th. Look for very high temperature. One of the warmest waves of the month may be counted on from about the 24th to the 27th, accompanied by active electrical storms and culminating in many thunder gusts. Cooler to the close of the month. The month comes to its close in the first stage of a regular storm period, the culmination of which will fall in the opening days of August. Some eastern to northern parts of our great agricultural regions will feel a pinch of dryness in July and August, and most other sections will have little moisture to waste.

AMONG SOCIETY.

Two of the Most Pleasant Events of Season.

Mrs. C. R. Clark entertained last Thursday evening at her home on East Eighteenth street, complimentary to Misses Cornelia DeTreville, Mollie Garnett and Clara and Emily Braden. Quite a large crowd of young people were present and the occasion proved one of the most pleasant social events of the season. Music was furnished by a string band. Refreshments were served.

Miss Rowena Wall entertained last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Mayme Goostree, of Nashville. The young gentlemen present were members of the Kenton Club. Refreshments were served and the event was one among the highly enjoyable June social gatherings.

FATAL CASES OF FLUX

Two Deaths From the Disease
Saturday Night.

There were two deaths from flux reported in the county Saturday night. The first was an 18-months-old daughter of Mr. Wm. Daugherty, of the Antioch neighbor. The remains were interred in Hope will cemetery Sunday. The second death was that of a little child of Mr. Cobb, of near Fairview. Interment in Gray burying ground yesterday morning.

HIGHT-DUNNING.

Pretty Wedding Takes Place in Crofton.

Crofton, Ky., June 29.—Mr. Frazier Hight, of Lobelia, this county, and Miss Maude Dunning, of this place, were united in marriage yesterday. The event took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah P. Dunning, and was witnessed by a few of the most intimate friends of the young people. Esq. J. M. Clark performed the ceremony.

Congressman Ollie M. James has appointed Guy Freeman, of Fulton, to a cadetship in the Navy.

The Date Fixed.

The Kentuckian's contest to determine the ugliest man in Christian county will close at four o'clock Saturday, August 15, 1903. The date has been definitely and finally fixed and will not be postponed. This leaves about six weeks for the candidates to get an extra "hustle" on themselves. It is still anybody's race.

MRS. GEO. P. RIVES

Dies at Home of Her Mother in Bowling Green.

Mrs. Ella Claypool Rives, wife of Mr. Geo. P. Rives, of Longview, died Friday night at the home of her mother in Bowling Green.

Mrs. Rives, who was Miss Ella Claypool, was married to Mr. Rives on Dec. 8th, of last year. She was taken ill three weeks afterward, while visiting her mother and had been confined to her bed ever since. Her illness was caused by internal abscess and she was a great sufferer during her long sickness.

She was a member of the Christian church, a most lovely young woman, and her death is a great shock to her host of friends.

Deceased was 28 years old.

The interment took place in Bowling Green Sunday.

Mr. R. P. Rives, of Casky, and Mr. Frank Rives, of this city, attended the funeral.

COURT CLOSES.

Coffey Murder Cases Go to Court of Appeals.

The June term of circuit court closed Saturday. Judge Reeves, of Elktion, who was special judge when the Coffey murder cases were tried, was here Saturday and signed the bill of exceptions in the cases of John Woodruff and Francis Drake. The case will now go to the court of appeals. Woodruff and Drake were given life sentences at their trial in the spring. Sentence will be suspended for 60 days and the prisoners will remain in jail here until the higher court passes on the cases.

The case of the Planters bank vs. M. S. Major and his wife, Kittie H. Major, was decided in favor of defendant. An appeal will be taken.

WALLIS-PROCTOR.

Former Hopkinsville Plan Will
Wed Philadelphia Woman.

The engagement of Miss Jane Proctor, daughter of a prominent business man of Philadelphia, and Mr. Allan D. Wallis, is announced. The date of the marriage is not yet known here.

SAD MESSAGE.

Mr. Mason's Daughter Dying,
Said Telegram.

Mr. John W. Mason, of Herndon, received a telegram from Louisville, stating that his daughter, Miss Bessie, was dying in a hospital in that city. She was about 20 years old and had been in the hospital several months.

A Good Story of A Salted Mine.

Chauncey Thomas has written many good stories for McClure's, but none better than the one in the current number, "Ruggles' First Case." Ruggles is a young lawyer in Denver, briefless and almost breadless. His first client is a trusting young Englishman—who has just parted with his last penny to a Yankee syndicate in exchange for a salted mine. Ruggles takes his case and forces a settlement, but by a procedure considerably more strenuous than the ordinary process of law. A good story of a good bluff never fails to appeal—Chauncey Thomas in McClure's for July.

The July National Magazine.

America's teachers are given first place in the July National. Dr. A. E. Winslow tells how Boston is preparing to welcome them, 25,000 strong, early in July. His article is illustrated with portraits of thirty leaders of American education. Mr. Chubb's Affairs at Washington is full of brisk and lavishly illustrated chat from the capital. Colonel James Matlock Scovel's Side for injury on the heels of Grant's loyalty to his chief in 1864, when politicians wanted the soldier to run for president.

Discharged as Guard.

The summary discharge of Ad Shoemaker from the guardship at the penitentiary last Saturday has had the effect of calling public attention in an emphatic way to what is generally understood to be a movement to punish every man on the bill that seems in any way across the path of Mr. Geo. Green to the all-important goal of his re-election. Of course Mr. Green's re-election is far more important than that Jim Street, Dock Parker or Ad Shoemaker should be treated as honorable, self-respecting, and hard-working Democrats. It there were ever better guards on the hill than those gentlemen nobody has known them. The guards are, as a class, a noble set of fellows, and they deserve a better fate than to be kicked out of some irresponsible 'whim or to make room for some man pledged to support Mr. Green, the world and all flesh, or to furnish employment to some official dependent of other.

Mr. Shoemaker was summarily proceeded against with an immediate warning, on the so-called charge of being asleep on duty and was held guilty on the testimony of one witness only, in face of his positive denial. When Ad Shoemaker declares he was not asleep, every man, woman, and child, who knows him, knows his declaration is true. But he is out, so is Parker, and so is Street, each with a large family to support, and a clean record before him. It is to be hoped their places may be bettered to good advantage by the political bargain seekers and their understrappers.—Tale of Two Cities.

Things One Cannot Afford To Miss.

The July McClure's surpasses itself. Good stories at this season of the year are the prime requisites, and of these there is an abundant and varied supply. O. Henry's "The Fourth in Salvador." is a seasonal and delectable burlesque, telling how five home-sick Americans, aided by an Englishman who joined them "for the pure joy of a blooming row," initiated the Salvadoreans into the glories of the national holiday, "July," by M. G. Simpson, is a quaint and homely love story of two Irish lads and an Irish lass; and "A Bird's View of Heaven," by Philip Verrill Hughes, is a rollicking bit of love-making of the true American sort. "In the Matter of the Mason," by Bayard Veiller, is a piece of fiction altogether out of the ordinary—the story of a Presbyterian mission founded by an old Jew, a convert to Christianity, "Dutch Courage," by John Miles Stoddard, is a fine tale of adventure on the rail.

Testing Five Wireless Devices.

The United States navy department is testing five distinct systems of wireless telegraphy and conducting a thorough trial of a new type of submarine torpedo boat, the Protector, which is different from the Holland type of craft in many respects. At several of our military posts the United States signal corps is seeking to determine the usefulness in warfare of automobiles and captive balloons and the government has only recently decided after a very thorough practical investigation to dispense with the carrier pigeon service, and accordingly the cotes at the various navy yards will be abolished and attention centered on wireless telegraphy and other methods of communication.—From "Our Army and Navy" by Walden Fawcett, in July National Magazine.

Wanted a Boy.

A merchant in one of our northern cities lately put an advertisement in a paper headed:

"Boy Wanted."

The next morning he found a bandbox on his door step, with this inscription on the top:

"How will this one answer?"

On opening it he found a nice, fat, chubby-looking specimen of the article he wanted, warmly done up in flannel.—Spare Moments.

JILTED BY HER LOVER

Miss Ada Cameron, of Memphis Commits Suicide.

Memphis, Tenn., June 25.—Miss Ada Cameron, a well known and highly respected young society lady of this city, committed suicide in a local hotel here today, by taking poison. She left a letter saying she was heartbroken because the boy she loved was to marry another girl.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Hopkinsville People, and What They Say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here, at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statements of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

John J. Basford, cooper, of 766 East Ninth street, says: "My back used to be so lame and sore at times that when I went it was all I could do to straighten up again. The pains were always with me and I could not stand for any length of time without feeling them. I do not do so now. I tried to obtain the slightest benefit. My attention was called to an advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills and I determined to try them. I got a box at Thomas & Traher's drug store and after using them a few days could not help but notice a marked improvement in my condition. My health is better now than it has been for years. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills, and strongly recommend them to others."

MARRIED IN A BUGGY.

Man and Woman Made One While Riding to Catch a Boat.

Paducah, Ky., June 25.—Mr. Wilbur Armatage, of Kankakee, Ill., and Miss Mattie Overstreet, of Paducah, were married at Metropolis, Ill., last night in a buggy by Justice Thomas Liggett. They heard the boat they desired to take whistle just as they drove up, and taking the Justice inside, they were married on the way to the wharf.

The Hygiene of Old Age.

We look upon the aged with good reason as having a slender hold upon life, one that may be loosened by a slight shock of injury or disease. In the young or middle aged, would serve only as a stimulus to the reparative vital powers. This is a conservative belief, but it was us to shield our loved ones who have bought the fight, from all influences which might shorten their stay with us. But we must not go too far in our solicitude, for any man may be afflicted and life shortened by coddling the old, almost as surely as by coddling the young. The vital processes in the aged are slow, but they are still existent, and they may be kept active by gentle opposition and stimulation, just as they may be increased in childhood and youth by rough methods. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound is a boon to the aged and infirm, and probably no medicine has accomplished so much or received as high or as many endorsements from men and women whose extreme age gives them a seemingly slender hold upon life. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin makes perfect digestion and acts gently upon the bowels in an easy and pleasant manner. Tones up the entire system and prolongs life. 50c and $1 bottles at all druggists.

NEW JAPANESE INDUSTRY.

Ladies' Demands Supplied in the Land of the Rising Sun.

It is perhaps hardly recognized how formidable a competitor Japan is becoming to the continental nations in supplying some of the items of ladies' daily demands, says the London Telegraph. It is now several years since a great West end firm introduced the luxuriously soft and comfortable quilted dressing gowns and jackets from the land of the rising sun, and by supplying English patterns as to size and shape to the Japanese workers was enabled to offer the home customer what she wanted in these directions, allied with the charms of color and embroidery that are distinctively eastern.

Luton is more and more relying upon Japan for the straw plaits and braids which go to make the smart and inexpensive hats and toques now appearing so conspicuously in the milliners' windows, and this year a stride forward has been made in sending over what are technically known as "chip fancies," which have hitherto been almost exclusively supplied by Italy. And now there is a new branch of enterprise to be noted with regard to the more dainty features of our table linen, and Japan is prepared to give us lunch, sideboard and afternoon tea cloths, serviettes and the like with the ultra-fashionable adornment of drawn-thread work in the most charming variety.

Hitherto the work has been done upon the native cotton cloth, and the first essential toward bringing it into accordance with western table requirements was to supply instead the finest Irish flax linen. This the deft feminine hands of the Japanese workers found to be admirably suited to their peculiar methods, and upon it they are executing work that not only rivals the finest Sicilian examples in this direction, but has characteristics entirely its own. They employ several forms of stitch quite unknown in Europe, and in the fineness of their effect obtain results approaching to that of pillow lace.

Everyone is familiar with the Teneriffe linen work, and the outlines of this are often reproduced in that of Japan, but critics are inclined to prefer the intricate geometrical and scroll devices that seem to be indigenous. Although so arid and delicate in appearance, the work washes well, provided that reasonable care be exercised, and is indeed sent into this country washed and ready for immediate use.

Perhaps to the ordinary buyer the greatest recommendation that these charming accessories could have is their cheapness as compared with what the price would be of items of European origin on which a tenth part of the patient hand labor had been expended. For 15 shillings, or less at a retail firm, it is possible to buy a tea cloth or centerpiece with delightful and even elaborate ornamentation of this kind at the ends of the corners, and long lattice-like open-work hemstitching. Especially dainty are tiny napkins for afternoon tea, which are a real boon when hot buttered cakes are served. At present the length of time that must elapse between sending an order from this country and receiving the finished work has militated against utilizing it for dress trimmings, but should the present season witness, as is expected, an unexhausted popularity for Belfast linen gowns, it is probable that something of the kind may be attempted for next year's wear.

Her Political Party.

Ex-Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, tells of a woman who presented herself one day at the registration booth of a town in that state for the purpose of qualifying in order that she might cast her vote upon the school question at the next election. "With what political party do you affiliate?" asked the clerk of the unaccustomed applicant, using the prescribed formula. The lady blushed and otherwise exhibited some confusion of manner. "Is it obligatory that I should answer that question?" she inquired. "Certainly, madam; the law requires it." "Then," said the woman, "I don't think I care to vote if I must mention the party's name. However, I don't mind saying that he is a candidate for a trusteeship and one of the nicest men I've ever met."

There is being much said about negro peonage in the South, which means holding negroes in involuntary servitude. A federal judge in Alabama has gone so far as to convict of peonage a white man who forced a negro to work out a debt due him, the negro raising no objections until instigated by others to prosecute the man who had extended credit to him. In many of the factories of the North, the white laborers are but little better than slaves, but we hear no especial clamor being raised about their pitiable condition. Next thing, the "peonage" question will be applied to negro jail birds who are held in "involuntary servitude."

The Review of Reviews opens a new volume with a number that exhibits very clearly the international scope of the magazine. The shocking end of the Obrenovitch dynasty in Serbia is the occasion of some interesting editorial comment on the politics of southeastern Europe: the British tariff debate centering about Mr. Chamberlain's proposals, also claims editorial attention. Mr. W. T. Stead makes a scathing exposure of the plundering and atrocities perpetrated in the Congo Free State for the profit and aggrandizement of Leopold, King of the Belgians, and his arraignment of that monarch is authenticated by the personal observations of the Rev. W. M. Morrison, an American missionary in the Congo country; a wholly different kind of exploitation is described by Joseph M. Rogers under the title, "The American Invasion of Uganda,"—an account of Yankee bridge building in the heart of the Dark Continent.

J. W. Gilbert, of Murray, is the only announced candidate for Senator in the Third Senatorial District, who recognizes the alleged convention called by Thompson and Boughter at Cerulean Springs. J. M. Melton, of Murray, and N. W. Criley, of Eddyville, will be candidates before the convention to be called by the regular committee.

The Courier-Journal's fund for Capt. Ewen now amounts to about $2,000, while almost as much more has been raised by other Louisville and Lexington papers. It is also asserted that $2,000 of his insurance had not been canceled. Capt. Ewen has declined to accept the tender of a Louisville house free of charge.

Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, of India, claims to be the "promised Messiah" and has challenged Dr. Dowling, of Illinois, to a prayer-duel. Each side is to petition the Almighty "that of us two whoever is the liar may perish first." The Indian Messiah claims to be "the very Messiah, the promised one."

There are 154 publications issued in the interest of the American Negro. Of these 119 are weeklies, 21 monthlies, 12 semi-weeklies and the rest quarterly. Only 25 have a circulation exceeding 1,000. Two of these 154 periodicals are published in Hopkinsville—the Major and the Colored Teacher.

President Roosevelt has appointed Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr., to a judgeship at West Point. The Republicans are determined to leave nothing undone to hold the former Democratic governor. They may even go to the extent of nominating his son-in-law, Col. Belknap, for governor.

SONS OF KENTUCKY

Will be Reunited After Separation of Half Century.

Dallas, Texas, June 26.—There is to be a reunion of two brothers in Owensboro, Ky., who have not met since 1849, and who had not heard from each other for half a century until a letter came to Texas a week ago. The brothers are George W. and John V. Goode. They were born and reared in Davis county, Kentucky. John V. is past 80 years old and George W. is in his seventieth year. The story of their separation as told by George W., in a Dallas railway ticket office to-day, is as follows:

"My brother had a violent attack of the 'gold fever' in 1849 and joined the rush to California. He has been there until about 10 days ago. I came to Texas, and 32 years ago served as City Marshal in Dallas. For the last 30 years I have been farming in Parker County. A few days ago I received a letter from Owensboro that brother John had come back from California to spend his last days at the old home. I have packed up what things I need and started on a trip for my old Kentucky home. I'm just negotiating with this agent for one ticket to Kentucky and two back to Texas. If I can prevail on John to do so I'll have him to come out with me and make me a visit on my Parker County farm."

NEW TELEGRAM FORM

Has Been Adopted by the Postal Telegraph Company.

To commemorate an epoch in its history and an event of signal importance to the country—the extension of the cable under the Pacific Ocean from San Francisco to Hawaii, Guam, Manila, and China—a new telegram form has been designed and adopted by the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company.

The distinctive feature of the form is a unique device, or "trade-mark," elliptical in shape, to indicate that the company's lines extend more than two-thirds of the distance from east to west around the world. The border of the ellipse is a representation of an armored submarine cable with the words "Postal Telegraph Commercial Cable System" in white on the blue ground of a marginal band surrounding a reduced map showing the shortest the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, the shores of Europe and Asia and the continent of North America, and indicating the routes of ocean cable and the main American landlines of the commercial Cable and Postal Telegraph Companies.

The device is a graphic delineation in remarkably small space of the comprehensive and far-reaching telegraph system which will endure as a fitting monument to the late John W. Mackey, in whose patriotism and public spirit it was conceived and by whose sagacity, financial ability and indomitable energy it was established and developed despite powerful opposition, until it gained public recognition as one of the most successful as well as beneficial business enterprises of the times.

The secret of its success is an open one and is summed up in the phrase that has become the motto of its employees: "Intelligence, diligence energy and courtesy make the best telegraph service."

It is justifiable pride that leads to the reiteration in the company's advertisements of the question: "Did you every stop to Compare the efficient telegraph service of to-day with the telegraph service as it was before the Postal and Commercial companies entered the field?" followed by the answer "It is better now, and we did it!"

VISIT TO EARLINGTON

By a Party of Hopkinsville Ladies Thursday.

Seventeen Hopkinsville ladies left Thursday morning on the ten o'clock train for Earlington, where they were delightfully entertained until the midnight train by the ladies and gentlemen of that town. Traps and carriages met the party and after driving them around town they were driven out to the lake where a delicious dinner was served in the pavilion. After dinner an hour or two was spent rowing and fishing on the lake, having pictures taken and enjoying the beautiful scenery. About four o'clock the party returned to Earlington in traps, were driven to the mines and points of interest around the town and entertained at a supper. Mrs. E. A. Chatten was hostess at the lunch party given in the evening. Ten games were played and during the contesticed punch was served, and at the conclusion the picnic crowd had to rush for the train. The Earlingtons beat by a score of 106 to 74.

In the Hopkinsville party were Mesdames Henry Tandy, Tom Underwood, Joetta Henry, Manning Brown, William Cummings, James O. Cook, Tom L. Morrow, Joe Bullard, Dixon Kitchell, E. C. Russell, Misses Fannie Phelps, Lee Campbell, Kate Harrison, Sallie Campbell, Pat Plack, Annie Rutherford, Elizabeth Stites.

Everybody's Magazine.

The July number of Everybody's Magazine is specially strong in fiction. A new serial is begun in that number by Gelett Burgess and Will Irwin, called "The Reign of Queen Isyl", a gay, vigorous, human tale of modern California and a fiesta queen who vanished on the eve of her coronation. The fantastic humor of Gelett Burgess and the sturdy realism of Will Irwin have combined to make a charming story. "The Marriage of Martin", by Frederick Walworth, is a lively tale of Irish twins who loved the same girl. "The Atavism of John Tom Little Bear", by O. Henry, is a humorous story of an Indian, who, after receiving a college education, becomes Indian again for a few hours, much to the reader's edification and the Indian's credit. "The Poet and the Hall Bedroom" is a dainty story by Emily Watson, full of sentiment. "The Wooing of Abbe" concludes in the July number. It is the strongest installment of a strong story. The Indian snake dance is given with such realism as to suggest that the author must have been an eye-witness.

WHITNEY AND O'BRIEN.

Gov. Beckham Fixes July 24 as the Day of Execution.

Frankfort, Ky., June 26.—Gov. Beckham to-day fixed Friday, July 24, for the hanging of Earl Whitney and Claude O'Brien, the Lexington murderers. Their attorneys presented a petition for commutation of sentence.

GHASTLY FIND.

Discovers Skeleton Supposed to Be That of Negro.

Cadiz, Ky., June 25.—While Bristol Lancaster, living about eight miles south of here, was out hunting a few days ago, he came across a human skeleton in a large wood land belonging to J. B. Porter. A pair of pants were found with the skeleton, and about fifty yards away the shoes were found sitting against a tree. It is generally accepted that the skeleton is that of an old negro named Chas. Dillard, who, at times, was mentally unbalanced. About eighteen months ago he went to the home of Jeff Elliott, a negro, who lives near where the skeleton was found, and in the afternoon left Elliott's and has not been heard of since. The shoes and pants were identified by Elliott as the ones worn away from his house by Dillard, and negro hair was also found. A nail and a small button were found in the pants pockets. Some think that the old negro, while in his demented state, wandered off in the woods and died, while others believe he was murdered. Some claim that he had some money, and a new pocketbook a day or two before he disappeared, which adds to the theory of murder. This has created a good deal of excitement in that community, and hundreds of people have visited the scene.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleepless nights, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. Track Laying Progressing Very Rapidly.

The track laying on the T. C. R. R. is progressing rapidly toward Ashland City and it will be only a short time when Nashville and Ashland will be connected by rail. The work of grading between Clarksville and Ashland is being pushed rapidly towards completion, also the work north of Clarksville is moving on nicely and it seems that before long we will hear the whistle of the locomotive on the new road. The new offices in the new exchange building have nearly all been refitted and furnished and the officials begin to feel at home in their new quarters.—Times-Journal.

DO YOU GET UP

WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medicinal triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid, rheumatism and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a booklet telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., P.O. Box 108, Hamilton, N. Y.

The regular fifty cent and Home of Swamp-Root, dollar size are sold by every druggist.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BETHEL LETTER.

Bethel, Ky., June 28.—If you will allow me space in your valuable paper, I would like to send a few items from Bethel.

Miss Mary Smithson, of Hopkinsville, spent a week's vacation with her cousin, Miss Ida Meador, near Cadiz.

Miss Daisy Wilson will teach the Bethel school this fall.

Moonlighters are very common in our neighborhood.

Miss Annie Patterson, of this neighborhood, is visiting relatives in your city.

Mr. Albert Sholar bought a new buggy Saturday.

There was a moonlight at Mr. T. M. Wilson's Thursday night, given in honor of Miss Mary Smithson, of Hopkinsville. Several attended from Cadiz and all report a good time.

Miss George McAttee entertained a party of young people last Friday night.

Misses Mary Smithson and Ida Meador and Messrs. Sidney Holloway and Smith Thomas spent a few short but pleasant hours at Cerulea Sunday. There Miss Smithson bade them farewell for home.

Hoping to see this in print, and best wishes to the Kentuckians.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free."

Ball Players on Trial.

Paduach, Ky., June 25.—Manager Sam Jackson, of the Paduach League Baseball Club, has been succeeded by Capt. Gage, who arrived yesterday from Notre Dame. To-day all the players are being tried before a jury for playing on Sunday, and, as they are being tried one at a time, the trial will probably consume the remainder of the week.

FOREST FIRES.

How They Occur and How They May Be Controlled.

A study of forest fires, begun in the South this spring, will be continued during the summer in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin by a party under H. J. Tompkins, of the Bureau of Forestry. Mr. Tompkins will inquire into the methods used by the inhabitants in putting out fires, and determine, if possible, how these methods may be improved. He will then attempt to devise some general system of fire control for the States studied, so that the Bureau, if called on, will be able to furnish their legislatures with recommendations for fire laws based on a thorough knowledge of the conditions.

WILL MEET FRIDAY.

Democratic State Executive Committee to Settle Primary Expenses.

Frankfort, Ky., June 27.—By direction of State Chairman Young, of the Democratic committee, Secretary Percy Haley this morning issued a call for a meeting of the State Executive Committee, to be held at the Capital Hotel on Friday, July 3, next, at 1 o'clock p. m. The meeting is for the purpose of paying expenses of the late primary election of May 9 last. The State Central Committee has not been called to meet.

GREAT CONTEST.

Was That Pulled Off at Crofton Friday Night.

Crofton, Ky., June 27.—Unprecedented in the annals of modern history was the exciting contest of Old Time Fiddlers at this place last night and many old and difficult points were settled forever, beyond dispute.

Prof. W. E. Gray, of Crofton, delivered the welcoming address and Mr. W. F. Randle, of Hopkinsville, responded. Mr. T. E. Bartley, of Hopkinsville, was master of ceremonies. The judges were Messrs. John M. Dulin and M. B. Brown, of this place, and O. G. Hille, of Hopkinsville.

THE PROGRAM.

Solo.—Joe S. Clark, "Billy in the Low Ground"; Hart Wicks, "Hungr' Jim"; B. Marquess, "It's Bleeding for Yer"; J. G. Hord, "Water's Wet, but Don't Reach"; W. F. Randle, "Shine On, Oh, Shine On"; Dr. G. W. Lackey, "Dissect, Nigger, Dissect"; Robt. McCarroll, "Freezing Charlie".

Clark and Marquess tied. When this was played off Marquess won. The points at issue were that Clark stamped so loud and drowned the tone of his G string, while Marquess, played with his right hand and stamped with his left foot. Marquess corrected his error, while Clark stamped a light out.

In the contest of Christian county against Hopkinsville, Hopkinsville won. The county was represented by Wicks, Marquess, Clark, Dr. Lackey, and Miss Essie Marquess. The city fiddlers were: Hord, Bartley, Randle, McCarroll and Stanley Long.

This contest was very spirited and many points of excellence were brought out. Dr. Lackey made some lengthy runs on his tenor string near the bridge, which would have knocked a mocking bird cold. Miss Marquess' accompaniment on the guitar was excellent. Wicks played a fine second and Clark got in his work on his "G." Of the Hopkinsville team Randle pulled down so heavy that he broke his second tenor string, but he kept on playing "just the same," scoring a fine point. Long's execution on his bass fiddle was something marvelous. His elbow and foot movements were like unto those of the "Old Timer."

Hord and McCarroll made good seconds, adding much volume to the music. Bartley played second lead to Randle and the way he went at it showed there was no coolishness in what he was doing. One of the fine points in his favor was the way he handled his bow. Fine violin players always hold the bow at the lower end, near the screw that tightens the horsehair, while scientist fiddlers hold the bow about a foot from the screw, which gives the performer the best use of it in getting the kicks with the lower end in making the kinks and twitches with the upper end. Bartley is very scientific in demonstrating the fact.

There were several duets and in one of them Lackey and Bartley each scored 30 points, making a tie. This was played off. The judges were in doubt as to the winner until a lucky accident happened for Lackey. While getting in some fancy licks the lower end of his bow slipped and went under the bridge. The doctor lost neither "time" nor "stage," thus winning by one point. Hopkinsville also won in the contest between the Hopkinsville six against "any six."

The next and last number was music of 1703 and 1903. This was rendered by O. G. Hille. For music of 1703 he played "Cotton Eyed Joe." This was so pathetically rendered that a number of the Old Time Fiddlers were visibly affected. Hille had his nerve with him, however, and went back and played more of 1903, rendering "Down on the Sewanee River" with variations. This elicited much applause and he was forced to come back and play several other selections, among them being "My Old Kentucky Home." It is to be hoped that the old fiddlers will play a return engagement at no distant day.

The list of prizes follows: Covered Vegetable Dish, Miss Essie Marquess; Silk Umbrella, silver mounted, W. F. Randle; 50 lbs. Fine Flour, Hart Wicks; 1 qt. Extra Mountain Dew, Julian Hord; photo. Group Old Fiddlers, Robert McCarroll; Peck of Corn Meal, J. S. Clark; Fine Pocket Knife, Dr. Lackey; Fine Razor, B. Marquess.

SINGING SKULE

Drew a Big Crowd at Opera House Friday Night.

Messrs. Bertram and Willard, the managers of the "Singin' Skule" entertainment at the opera house Friday night, gave a large crowd a thoroughly enjoyable show.

It was given under the auspices of the Christian church and they were assisted by the following well known local people:

Messrs. B. C. Hardwick, Walter Wilson; Misses N. Long, Graeme Stirling, Maggie Wilson, Edith Boulware, Hattie Hale, Rowena Wall, Maggie Hill, Bettie Lee Smith, Katie McKee, Betsy Ware, Ada Ritter, Kate Manson, Annie Cox, Mary Goldthwaite, Willie Harned, Mabel Wilson, Joy Herndon, Patty Bartley, Maggie Ellis, Minnie Armistead, Virgie Nourse, Susie Cox, Katherine Long; Messrs. Charles Duke, Lawson Plack, Ben Winters, Emmett Jones, Will Waller, Albert Thomas, Browne Whitlow, Ellis McKee, Fritz Fallenstein, Miller Clark, Pap McKee.

The show consisted of songs, recitations and comic specialties.

Humor pervaded the whole performance from start to finish. Mr. Bertram impersonated Mrs. Jeremiah Robbins and Mr. Willard was Mr. Robbins. They, of course, told the leading parts, but were ably assisted by the Hopkinsville talent, including the best in the city for performances of this kind. Misses Hattie Hale and Edith Boulware deserve special credit for creating a local interest in the show and making it so pronounced a success. The profits of the show went to the organ fund of the church.

GAMES THIS WEEK.

Clarksville Will Be Here Three Days.

There will be four games of ball at Athletic park this week between Clarksville and Hopkinsville. The first game will be played Thursday afternoon and the second Friday afternoon. On Saturday the clubs will play a double-header, one game in the morning and the other in the afternoon. All of these games promise to be most interesting and the attendance on each occasion will doubtless be very large.

Henderson beat Hopkinsville three straight games at Henderson by one score in each game.

The State Bar Association will convene in Owensboro Thursday of this week.

TO SUCCEED REDWINE.

Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd to Run for Circuit Judge.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—It was given out here to night by a well known citizen of Campton that Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd would in a short time announce his candidacy for Circuit Judge to succeed Judge Redwine. It is claimed that all citizens, irrespective of politics are anxious that he make the race. It is believed that he is the only person that can stamp out the feuds in the district.

Milling Prospects

If flour buyers have gained the impression that the mill of St. Louis and the Southwest will not have plenty of wheat, of good quality and wheat at compelling prices, we can assure them that they will speedily find their mistake, and learn to the contrary, that the outlook of the milling year in the Southwest is decidedly good.

St. Louis and the adjoining mills have to the west of them abundance of wheat. Kansas has magnificent prospects, with nothing to interfere but a wet harvest, which at present is not promised. The quality of Kansas and Oklahoma wheat and a good part of the Illinois and Mississippi crop will make the Southwest a strong competitor and we are sure that time will prove this assertion.

With the 1903 crop harvested in dry condition, there should be available for the mill of the whole winter wheat belt, plenty of supplies of soft wheat and hard wheat for the entire season. True, in localities the flood damage will be felt. Here wheat will have to be shipped in, instead of delivered locally, but happily the crop west is superb and the mills are along the line of the natural way to principal buying markets. Samples of new cut wheat from central Illinois are on exhibition and are exceptionally fine.

There is damage by flood and sections have suffered, but the government report as a bases does not warrant the belief that a falling off in the results mean a shortage. Speculators especially in the St. Louis market have unduly colored every local report. It was right and proper that the damage by flood should be reported, by this it does not mean that any mill state was crippled.

Elsewhere in this issue is printed a communication from Mr. F. E. Kauffman, which we believe will set at rest some of the reports that have been sent out by speculators, who have misrepresented the situation so grossly that it is time to call a halt. A blind pool of speculators have manufactured news and exaggerated the crop damage so persistently, in order to draw country traders into this market that it is quite time to prick the bubble.

The countryman did not respond with his buying orders and the blind pool is in a fair way to go to pieces.

Small contract supplies, the prospects of late deliveries and exaggerated reports, with talk of dollar wheat, have maintained the pool intact, but the pool will lose its effect in ample time to put the Southwest on its legitimate basis.

The trade should understand this and Mr. Kauffman's letter is timely.

TALENTED YOUNG ACTRESS.

Sketch of Miss Fay Finley, Who Visited Here.

The following sketch appeared in the Louisville Times of Saturday, though captivated the large audience, numbering probably 2,500 people in the big Union Tabernacle. Miss Finley was given a vociferous encore and her second recitation was even more pleasing than the first.

"The talented young lady was at that time and has since been visiting Mrs. J. B. Taylor, who is her aunt, and it is not generally known now that she is the bright young actress, known on the stage as May Stockton, who last season played the role of Bob in "A Little Outcast," and has been re-engaged by Manager E. J. Carpenter for the same role next season.

"She is spending the summer with her aunt here and another aunt, Mrs. Herald, at Franklin, Ky.

"She is a native of Kentucky, but her father, W. S. Finley, is now a wholesale jeweler of Cleveland, Ohio. Her grandfather was a Methodist minister of Morgantown, Ky., noted throughout Western Kentucky for his eloquence and popularity as a preacher. One of his best lectures was on "Ben Hur." He died a year or two ago.

"Miss Finley was educated at the Peabody School in Nashville, Tenn., and took a special course in elocution, having early developed a taste and talent for the stage. When she adopted her present profession, she dropped her last name and as known on the stage as May Stockton.

"During her career, which covers less than two years, she has everywhere met with unstinted praise.

Hot Weather Weakness.

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. The symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels, and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do. It is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freeland, Propr. Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPHY.

Prints Made with Extraordinary Quickness Without Light.
 By far the most important as well as astonishing discovery made for several years past in photography is the "Katyape" process, reported by Wilhelm Oswald, the professor of physical chemistry at the Seibitz university, and his assistant, Dr. Gross. Seven years ago the discovery of the Rosin rays aroused the whole civilized world, and almost as surprising is the first news about a hitherto completely strange and unknown method of picture production, by which, with the aid of a simple chemical means, any number of prints can be produced in the shortest time without the action of light. It is hardly necessary to mention that this Oswald-Gross process, which has been submitted to a public demonstration at Berlin and Leipzig, is of eminent significance and opens an entirely new path to photography.

The process in brief, according to the Milwaukee Sentinel, is practically as follows: The hydro-superoxide (H₂O₂) familiarly known as peroxide of hydrogen and latterly "dioxogen," is of particular importance in katatype. In the atmosphere it decomposes slowly by emitting oxygen, but in the presence of finely distributed silver or platinum decomposition proceeds rapidly. If, for instance, a negative print upon platinum paper is treated with hydro-superoxide preferably with an ethereal solution, it will remain intact upon the negative at the parts free from platinum, but at the plated parts it will become decomposed and we obtain thus an invisible positive picture.

If the platinum negative is now brought in contact with a gelatinized paper for a few seconds in the printing frame, the hydro-superoxide picture passes upon the gelatine film. This invisible print can be developed with Ferro salt solutions, for instance, sulphate of iron. A black print appears which, by after treatment with certain solutions, will obtain the most variegated colors. Gallie acid gives violet tones.

An ordinary bromide of silver negative can also be used in place of a platinum paper negative. The hydro-superoxide coagulates gelatine, and the katatype can therefore also be employed for carbon process. Dr. Gross' experiments relating to gum print process were highly applauded. He produced actually perfect gum pictures in an extraordinary short time. The negative is bowed for this purpose with an ethereal hydro-superoxide solution, brought in contact with Hoecheimer gum print paper; the paper is then for a minute put into a sulphate of iron solution, and is then developed in the well known manner in hot water with sadwast.

Aside from a few small technical defects that could be observed on some of the pictures on exhibition, like impurities and the want of some of the finer half tones, there is no doubt that katatype has a great future. The extremely rapid production of prints in most of the photographic processes without the medium of light are invaluable advantages of the new process.

The old lead printing process is again being revived. The process is extremely interesting and consists in the following: Plain paper prepared with starch is floated for five minutes in the following solution: Acetate of lead, 150 grs.; acetic acid, 2.5 c. cm.; water, 450 grs.
 After the paper is dry it is sensitized with a three per cent solution of iodide of potassium. Yellow lead iodide will form, and if such paper is exposed under a negative a green picture on a yellow ground will originate. The fixing takes place in a saturated ammonia solution. The print remains in the bath until the yellow ground has disappeared and the picture appears in the blue violet color. Finally, wash for half an hour in running water.

Sacred Teeth.

Teeth of all kinds have been worshipped, and are, in fact, still venerated as relics in some religious shrines. Buddha's tooth is preserved in an Indian temple, the Chinese worship the tooth of a monkey, while the elephant's and shark's tooth serve a similar purpose among the Malabar and Tonga Islanders, respectively. The Siamese were formerly the possessors of the tooth of a sacred monkey, which they valued very highly, but in a war with the Portuguese they lost it and had to pay $700,000 to get it back again. It is now kept in a small gold box enclosed in six other boxes in one of the many temples of the Siamese capital.

WORLD'S LARGEST TUNNEL.

Simplon Tunnel Will Break All Records When Completed.

According to United States Consul Pearson, at Gonoa, the Simplon tunnel, when completed, will be the largest in the world, to-wit, 14 miles long, or twice the length of the Mont Cenis and five times longer than the St. Gotthard. The cost of the tunnel alone will be $13,510,000, an average of nearly $1,000,000 per mile.

"The work," says the consul, according to the Washington Star, "is progressing rapidly in the tunnel on both sides of the Alps; about 4,000 workmen are employed in the tunnel, and not less than 6,000 on the Italian section of the road between Isella, at the mouth of the tunnel, and Arona, the present terminus of the railway running north from Milan. It is now practically certain that the road will be completed within the estimated time—that is to say, by July 1, 1905—as nearly two-thirds of the tunnel was finished July 1, 1902, and the worst obstacles have already been met and mastered. The greatest of the impediments was the ever-increasing heat in the tunnel, caused by the growing volume of water, which, although it starts at the summit of the mountain, 6,000 feet above the line of railway, after percolating through the beds of limestone, becomes almost boiling hot and flows in the tunnel at a temperature of from 112 degrees to 140 degrees F., rendering not only work but life impossible without resort to artificial means of refrigeration. The engineer by turning cold air on hot air and cold water on hot water has reduced the temperature in the tunnel from 140 degrees to 70 degrees F.

"The volume of water flowing out of the south end of the tunnel is over 15,000 gallons per minute, and furnishes motive power sufficient not only to work the refrigerating apparatus, but to compress the air by which the drills are operated."

"Probably," replied the monologist, "the same misguided fool who told your friend he was a gentleman."—Baltimore American.

MONEY IN BARLEY.

Heavy Yield Made by a Progressive Farmer.

Mr. J. D. Shepherd, on his farm near town, this year tried the experiment of raising barley for the first time. He sowed about two and a half sacks of 2 bushels each and threshed 113 sacks, leaving about one-fourth behind for his stock. Barley weighs 48 pounds to the bushel and makes a fine feed and is in demand for many purposes. The price is about the same as wheat and Mr. Shepherd found it a much more profitable crop this year. Most of our farmers would find the cultivation of diversified crops much more profitable than the old way of raising nothing but corn, wheat and tobacco.

INDIANA HUMOR.

A Bridegroom Has a Cow Bell Fastened to His Leg.

Wabash, Ind., June 27.—The marriage of William B. Russell and Miss Blanche Campbell took place at Lagro last evening and the happy couple came to Wabash to take the train for their bridal tour. A gay party accompanied the pair, and seized Russell, chained and locked a cow bell to his right leg. The unfortunate groom could not get the noisy ornament off and none of his friends would help him. He walked in despair up and down the station platform, the bell ringing loudly, while the crowd jeered. Just as the train arrived friends went to his rescue and managed to disengage him from the bell and load him on the train.
